

Partnership for Global Learning Annual Conference

Global Connections, Global Learning, Global Advocacy

July 7 - 9, 2011

Hilton Washington D.C./Rockville

Hotel & Executive Meeting Center

The Asia Society Partnership for Global Learning annual conference connects educators, business leaders, and policymakers to share best practices, build partnerships, and advance policies to ensure that all students are prepared for work and citizenship in the global 21st century.

JOIN the conversation with renowned speakers such as Heidi Hayes Jacobs, Alan November, and Andreas Schleicher.

---

CONNECT with practitioners and policymakers to understand how all K-16 stakeholders can work together to achieve a world-class education for every student.

---

LEARN with world experts about the best resources to prepare our students for post-secondary education and the workforce in an interconnected world.

---

LEAD by advocating for global competence as a key priority in American education.

---

Highlights

- Learn best practices from high-performing nations across the globe.
- Discover tools and resources to build global competence and to connect with classrooms and schools around the world.
- Network across disciplines to see how practice, policy, and business work together.

For more information on this conference or the Asia Society Partnership for Global Learning, please visit www.asiasociety.org/pgl